Thohoyandou - On 12 March 2025, MEC for Transport and Community Safety, Violet Mathye, engaged with Mopani and Vhembe districts' staff members at Thohoyandou, in Vhembe District.

The special meeting provided a unique opportunity for employees of salary levels 2-12 to interact directly with the MEC, sharing their concerns and feedback on the department's functioning.

MEC Mathye emphasized the importance of having happy staff for the department to run smoothly. She encouraged staff to speak freely and raise their issues without fear. The first staff member to speak, from Mopani district, highlighted the challenges they face in the workplace. Other staff members followed suit, discussing pressing issues such as understaffing, inadequate resources, promotions, and safety concerns.

The meeting demonstrated MEC Mathye's commitment to open communication and her dedication to addressing the needs and concerns of all employees. The staff left the engagement feeling motivated and inspired, with renewed enthusiasm to continue delivering exceptional work.

MEC Mathye assured the staff that their concerns would be addressed and improvements would be made.

Polokwane - MEC for Transport and Community Safety, Violet Mathye, expressed heartfelt appreciation to older employees aged 55 years and upwards in the department for their invaluable contributions to its success. This acknowledgement took place at an event held at Meropa Hotel in Polokwane on 12 March 2025.

MEC Mathye was joined by the Head of Department, Stephen Matjena, and Senior Management Members in supporting and celebrating the older employees. She acknowledged their significant role in shaping the department's corporate culture and upholding its values and standards.

"We need to appreciate and show love and kindness to you. You have contributed in many ways to the success of this department. The corporate culture embedded in the department is thanks to you," said MEC Mathye.

MEC Mathye further encouraged and motivated employees to start planning for life after work. She advised them to establish routines that would keep them engaged and active, emphasizing the importance of careful decision-making as they approach pension age.

To empower them with valuable knowledge, various informative presentations were made on topics such as managing finances, maintaining physical and mental well-being, and promoting a fulfilling life after retirement.

LDTCS HOSTS INDUCTION SESSION FOR NEW STAFF

Staff Writer

Polokwane - The Limpopo Department of Transport and Community Safety (LDTCS) hosted an induction session for 96 newly appointed employees in Polokwane on 10 March 2025, marking an exciting new chapter for the department.

The new employees were warmly welcomed by MEC Violet Mathye, who emphasized the importance of teamwork, dedication, and commitment to serving the community. "You are ambassadors of our department; we expect you to showcase a positive image to the public. Furthermore, we anticipate innovative ideas and success stories emerging from your contributions and dedication to our team," said MEC Mathye, addressing staff.

The HOD, Stephen Matjena, provided a comprehensive overview of the department, highlighting its core functions and strategic objectives. The induction session also featured presentations by Chief Directors of Transport Operations, Transport Regulation, and Provincial Secretariat for Police Service, who shared valuable insights into their respective areas of expertise.

Other presentations covered essential topics such as Internal Control Compliance matters, Risk Management, Public Service Code of Conduct and Ethics matters, Constitutional Values and Principles, and related Batho Pele programmes.

The new staff members also received information on Human Resource Management, Employee Wellness and Special Programmes, controls on departmental fleet, and the Government Employees Medical Scheme (GEMS).

The induction session was a resounding success, with the new staff members expressing their enthusiasm and eagerness to contribute to the department's mission. As they embark on this new journey, they are joining a winning team dedicated to making a positive impact on the lives of the people of Limpopo.
